

VOTE CARMEN TAGEANT POSITION B

My ancestral name is To:tse, My parents are Elina Tageant, late Dean Williams and Robert Tageant. My grandparents are late Virginia Andrews and Paul Tabafunda; my great grandparents are Agnus Phillips and George Andrews: my great great grandparents are Josephine Antone and Joseph Phillips. My direct Nooksack lineage comes from Louie Antone Sacquilty.

I am a mother of seven children, three boys and four girls and each of them have gone through the Nooksack Headstart program and attend Lummi High School and Nooksack Valley School District. I am also an honored grandmother of 5 beautiful babies. My children are born and raised on the Nooksack Indian Reservation in Everson, Washington. I have supported my children through hard work and dedication to family morals. My purpose for running is to establish a peaceful, safe, self-reliant and development-dominated community. My priorities are:

- Revitalize Culture: Enhance and support our way of life and traditional values.
- Strong and resilient economy: Natural Resources, jobs, homes and land.
- Effective and efficient services: Ensure to provide resources for families.
- Transparent government: Protect Democracy, perform my Constitutional duty.
- Health and Wellness: Calling for healing for all of our families.
- Education: Encourage our youth and adults to enhance education and careers.

Vote for me and let's work together to rebuild Nooksack. We can do this together!

I will be the most quintessential candidate to serve the people. Your Vote Matters!

The real secret of Happiness is not what you give or what you receive; it is what you share.
