

Trevor Delgado
Tribal Historic Preservation Officer

---

360-927-6622

Tdel88@gmail.com

Nooksack, WA

---

Objective

Dedicated professional with over 11 years progressive experience as the Nooksack Indian Tribal Historic Preservation Officer, committed to preserving cultural heritage and promoting sustainable resource management. Seeking to leverage expertise in environmental stewardship, tribal governance, and inter-agency collaboration as Tribal Council Member. Passionate about integrating traditional ecological knowledge with contemporary practices to protect and enhance natural resources for future generations.

---

Work Experience

Tribal Historic Preservation Officer
Nooksack Cultural Resources

January 2019-Present

- Collaborate with tribal leadership, community members, and elders to ensure conservation efforts align with tribal goals and traditions
- Ensuring compliance with Section 106 with Federal, State, Local agencies
- Build partnerships with federal and state agencies, NGOs, and neighboring communities to coordinate conservation efforts

Conservation Policy Analyst/Representative Nooksack Wildlife Management

January 2019-Present

- Develop strategies to mitigate elk population and conflicts in the North Cascades / Mount Baker Snoqualmie Forest
- Wildlife co-management: North Cascades Mountain goat and elk populations
- Assess population dynamics migration patterns, and habitat requirements of mountain goats

Cultural Resources Specialist
Nooksack Cultural Resources

May 2013-December 2018

- Create protocols for handling inadvertent discoveries of Cultural Resources during construction or other activities
  - Use GIS to identify, map, and record Nooksack U&A areas
  - Incorporate oral histories, traditional ecological knowledge, and archival records into mapping and ethnographic reporting projects
-

Key Skills

-Treaty Resource Preservation
-Treaty Resource Protection & Management
-Watershed Planning & Management

-Ecosystem Recovery Planning
-Wildlife Conservation
-GIS/Mapping
-Knowledge of Boldt Decision

---